

Vendigital Appoints Roy Williams as Managing Director of the UK business

Vendigital Ltd, one of the UK's leading procurement businesses has appointed Roy Williams as Managing Director for the UK business. Roy was previously the Operations Director responsible for successfully growing the business capability across the both the Procurement Services and Procurement Software divisions.

Roy was one of the business founders and has been with the business for the 9 years of its existence.

"I'm very proud to have Roy in the team and now on the board of our exciting business. Roy has been instrumental in the success of the business to date and in particular in driving the exciting pipeline of technology products that we are releasing this year. I look forward to many more years of success and growth under Roy's leadership" says Dominic Jephcott the group CEO and former Managing Director who is now relocating to Hong Kong to drive the Asian side of the business.

"I'm very pleased to be making this next step in my career and within Vendigital. Having been in the business since the start and seeing the exciting growth and development to date, I am looking forward to steering us through the next phase" comments Roy who takes up the role as of April 2009.

Vendigital is a procurement organisation specialised in supporting the development and delivery of supply chain strategies, resulting in rapid reduction in procurement cost and supply chain risk. Vendigital's experienced procurement and sourcing team, when combined with their innovative technology delivers exceptional results that lead the market.

Vendigital is headquartered out of Swindon, UK with subsidiaries in Cologne, Germany, Chicago, USA and latterly in Hong Kong.